The long cherished dream of the people of Western Haryana came true, and the indefatigable efforts of the academicians, intellectuals and political leaders of the region bore fruit when Chaudhary Bansi Lal University notified by the Haryana Government on 4 June, 2014.

It is named after the creator of modern Haryana, Late Ch. Bansi Lal. The University came into being and became functional from 26th July, 2014, with Dr. S. K. Gakhar as the Vice Chancellor. Chaudhary Bhupander Singh Hooda, the Hon'ble Chief Minister, Haryana, laid the foundation stone of the University campus on 30th July, 2014, at Bhiwani-the home town of Ch. Bansi Lal, at a distance of 124 kms from Delhi and 285 kms from the Chandigarh.

The University has been established as a teaching-cum-affiliating University to facilitate higher education in multi disciplines with special emphasis on sports and physical education and to achieve excellence in these and connected fields.

The University will ensure high academic standards in these colleges and fulfill the academic aspirations of thousands of students, many of whom belong to economically backward and underprivileged sections of the society.

The University has started seventeen Postgraduate Departments offering respective courses. Within interdisciplinary framework, the Departments have formed nine Faculties in different fields. In addition, nineteen more Departments under seven Faculties have been planned for the next session. Special emphasis has been given on sports related courses like Sports Management, Sports journalism, Sports Medicine and Sports Nutrition and Physiology etc. A new Faculty of Health System has been planned for having the courses like Public Health and Health Administration etc. Another new course Social Entrepreneurship has also been proposed for skill development among students.

The idea is to bring the laurels of world's top Universities with a blend of Takshshila and Nalanda and collect every precious stones and pebbles to construct a gigantic mountain range like The Himalayas.

Ch. Bansi Lal University has to develop by expanding as well as consolidating these academic programmes, which it will, maintaining the rich tradition and cultural heritage of the region as well as fulfilling its social mission of creating quality human resources in order to serve the nation with dedication.
