The Bharathiar University was established at Coimbatore by the Government of Tamilnadu in February, 1982 under the provision of the Bharathiar University Act, 1981 (Act 1 of 1982). The Postgraduate Centre of the University of Madras, which was functioning in Coimbatore before 1982 formed the core of the Bharathiar University. In May, 1985 the University received the recognition from University Grants Commission (UGC) New Delhi for the purpose of grants.

The University named after the great national poet Subramania Bharathi is enshrined with the motto “Educate to Elevate”. In the University, every effort is harnessed to realize his dream of making educational institutions as temple of learning. It is the aim of the University to participate in the task of inculcating necessary Knowledge, Skills and Creative Attitudes and values among the youth of the country to contribute more effectively towards establishing an equitable social and economic and secular ideal of our nation.

The University’s mission is :

To be innovative, inclusive and international University ; committed to excellence in teaching, research and knowledge transfer and to serve the social, cultural and economic needs of the nation".

To innovate and offer educational programmes in various disciplines with synergistic interaction with the industry and society.

To impart knowledge and skills to students equipping them to be ready to face the emerging challenges to the knowledge area.

To provide equal opportunity to women students and prepare them to be equal partners in meeting the scientific and technological demands of the nation.

To contribute to the advancement to knowledge through applied research leading to newer products and process.

To prepare the students to work for societal transformation with commitment to justice and equality.

To inculcate among students a global vision with skills of international competence.
