Khallikote University, formerly Native College and Khallikote College, is a State University situated in Brahmapur, Odisha on the eastern coast of India. Founded as a school in 1856, the institution became a university in 2015.

Khallikote University was started as a school in 1856 became an intermediate College in 1878 named Native College. It was renamed Khallikote College in 1893, commemorating a donation of 16.5 acres (0.067 km²) of land by the Raja of Khallikote. It was affiliated to Utkal University until 1967, when Berhampur University was established.

Through these years the college was managed by a private trust named K. C. Trust, until management was taken over by the Government of Odisha in 1971. Autonomy was conferred in 1990. The college has upgraded to a university on 30 May 2015.
